625 years ago, a brewer named Berlt joined the Augustinian monastery in Münnerstadt. With careful thought and united will, the community took him on and granted him board and lodging, among other things, for the rest of his life. Ever since, the beer has been a faithful companion of the monastery in Münnerstadt. What a history, full of twists and turns!

Where encounter meets hospitality: the Heinrich-Köppler-Haus

As catered welfare facilities, the OASEN of the Katholische Arbeitsgemeinschaft für Soldatenbetreuung (Catholic Association for the Welfare of Soldiers, KAS) at the Bundeswehr sites in Pfullendorf, Stetten a. k. M., Oberviechtach, Füssen, Roding and Hammelburg are firm regional meeting points.

A home for the Bundeswehr, military chaplaincy and the people of the region: the Heinrich-Köppler-Haus is a key part of the unique OASE welfare concept. With its versatile facilities and modern furnishings, it offers far more than good food in a welcoming setting.

Inviting restaurant and event venue, cosy meeting place or versatile centre for culture and leisure: the OASE in Hammelburg has become a popular place for Bundeswehr members and civilians to come together, meet and exchange ideas. The Heinrich-Köppler-Haus is also a regional conference and event centre for meetings, company evenings, club gatherings, family celebrations and special events. At the same time, the OASE serves as a protected space for the activities and pastoral care of the military chaplaincy.

Good to know: A board of trustees supported by the KAS, made up of Bundeswehr members, military chaplains and committed civilians, regularly plans varied leisure activities and events for the general public.

Rooted in Christian values, the KAS does charitable work for the people in the Bundeswehr and their families. As a non-profit organisation, we provide a needs-based balance to the challenges of military service and promote exchange with the civilian population. To this end, we design and support innovative and varied cultural, sports, leisure, family and educational projects, both nationwide and at selected Bundeswehr sites in Germany.

In addition, OASE deployment support, a joint initiative of the Catholic and Protestant associations for the welfare of soldiers, accompanies soldiers on their deployments and missions worldwide with a wide range of support services.

On behalf of the Catholic Military Bishop and complementing the employer's own welfare work, the Katholische Arbeitsgemeinschaft für Soldatenbetreuung provides off-duty leisure and family support in the Bundeswehr. More information: www.KAS-Soldatenbetreuung.de
